She procused most solemnly and was released.

Judge Snell on Labor. Judge Snell has been invited to be present at a benefit entertainment of Progressive Assembly, K. of L. In his letter of acceptance he says:

Being myself a con of toll and in full sympathy with all more ments, and organizations for the advancement of labor interests, I was reloiced to see the mobile stand taken at Chicago by a great number of hodies representing American labor in the recent convention there assembled. The passage of a resolution by a commanding malority denouncing violence and resting their cause upon the reason and intelligences of the people emphatically marks the difference between the condition of labor in Europe.
